

Proclamation

by

Steven L. Beshear
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

WHEREAS, Employees in the public sector provide a multitude of services which touch the lives of all Kentuckians; and

WHEREAS, Federal, state, and local government employees of the Commonwealth are dedicated to providing quality services in an effective and efficient manner; and

WHEREAS, Public employees consistently surpass the challenges of their jobs, sometimes at great personal risk; and

WHEREAS, It is of utmost importance that citizens understand the various roles that public employees play throughout our communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, STEVEN L. BESHEAR, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim October 6-12, 2008, as

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

in Kentucky, and encourage all citizens to recognize public service at all levels of government.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort this 1st day of October, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Eight and in the 217th year of the Commonwealth.
